

Gold Trader

Our status as a registered gold trader, or Comptoir, in the Democratic Republic of Congo reflects our comprehensive understanding of the resource supply chain.

RGI is more than just a miner; we are a vital link in the gold trade network.

Our commitment to transparency and ethical sourcing ensures that the gold we trade is sourced responsibly, benefitting both the global market and the local communities where we operate.

